Travel Information

Travelling by plane

The Nikola Tesla Airport in Belgrade provides regular flights to major European cities like London, Vienna, Rome, Berlin, Zagreb, Istanbul, Zürich and Paris.

Travelling by train

Belgrade Center Railway station (Železnička stanica Beograd Centar) was opened on 26th January 2016 and replaces the old Main Station (Železnička stanica Beograd Glavna). It offers international connections to Vienna, Munich, Zurich, Ljubljana, Thessaloniki, Sofia and Budapest.

Transfer from the airport

Mini Bus A1: Near airport exit gate there is bus station for "Mini Bus A1". Bus stops are in Slavija Square, New Belgrade (Fontana stop) and near Belgrade main train station. Tickets can be purchased in the bus for 300 dinars (3 Euro). Mini Bus A1 operates 7 days a week from 5 am till 21:30. Bus leaves airport every 60 minutes. On the peak hours (8:00 am – 18 pm) A1 Mini Bus operates more frequently.

Belgrade taxi service: On the airport exit there is a Taxi information desk, where you can order taxi with a fixed price from the airport to the city center for 1800 dinars (16 Euro). Charge per piece of baggage in the boot sometimes is free, sometimes is 100 dinars. When getting from Belgrade city to the airport there is no fix rate.
